Mayor and City Council

Address: 15151 E. Alameda Parkway

Phone number: 303.739.7015

Email: citycouncil@auroragov.org

The Aurora City Council is composed of a full-time mayor and 10 part-time council members. Of those 10 members, six are ward council members, representing one of the six wards in the city. The remaining four council members are elected at large, like the mayor, to represent the entire city. At AuroraGov.org, you can find out which council member represents you, along with meeting schedules and ways to become involved. City council meetings are held on scheduled Mondays at 6:30 p.m. at the Aurora Municipal Center, 15151 E. Alameda Parkway. The meetings are open to the public and are televised on Aurora's community television station, KACT- TV cable channel 8 and 880, and streamed at AuroraTV.org.

Office of International and Immigrant Affairs

The Office of International and Immigrant Affairs (OIIA) facilitates the successful integration of immigrants and refugees into Aurora's civic, economic and cultural life. The office manages official international protocol activities, coordinates the Aurora Immigrant and Refugee Commission and implements a strategic citywide plan focused on programs and initiatives aimed at the local refugee and immigrant population. OIIA also manages the citywide Language Access Plan providing language assistance services. For more information, contact 303.739.7521 or international@auroragov.org. Learn more about OIIA's resources and events at AuroraGov.org/International and Facebook.com/InternationalAurora.

Aurora Immigrant and Refugee Commission

The Aurora Immigrant and Refugee Commission (AIRC) consists of eleven (11) voting members appointed by the Aurora City Council. AIRC's main goal is to promote the integration of the local immigrant and refugee communities into Aurora's civic, economic and cultural life and to implement the city's Immigrant Integration Plan. Aurora Immigrant and Refugee Commission also develops programs and initiatives in support of the local immigrant and refugee population.

Aurora Police Department

In an Emergency, dial 911

Police Dispatch: 303.627.3100

General Information: 303.739.6000

The Aurora Police Department is responsible for providing law enforcement services to a growing, urban/suburban community with unique and ever-changing needs. We strongly believe that the challenges facing the police department can only be addressed effectively by connecting with community leaders, school administrators, members of the business community, non-profit organizations, other government agencies, neighborhood groups and most importantly, individual citizens. It is through this spirit of partnership that we will continue to see further reductions in crime, and we will enhance the quality of life for those who live, work and play in the city. To better serve and engage with the community, APD share information and make services available at AuroraPolice.com. Stay connected via Facebook and Instagram (@AuroraCOPD), Twitter (@AuroraPD), YouTube and Nextdoor.com.

Police Area Representative (PAR) Officers

PAR Officers help neighbors focus on problem solving, education and prevention. Each officer works closely with residents and businesses in their area. Officers attend Neighborhood Watch meetings and provide information regarding crime prevention and personal safety for home and work. PAR Officers are also available to offer assistance with key issues and work to improve the quality of life in neighborhoods. Call 303.739.6000.
