

5 ways you can save a child from dying in a hot parked car this summer.

Never leave your car without checking the backseat. Put your wallet or phone in back as a reminder.

Never leave your child in a parked car. Never. Not even for a minute.

Call 9-1-1 if you see a child alone in a car. Every minute counts.

If your child is missing, check the pool, car, and trunk of car immediately.

Arrange for your childcare provider to call if your child doesn't arrive on time.

When it's hot outside, the temperature inside a parked car can rise to fatal heatstroke levels within minutes, even if the windows are partially open.
