NOTICE:

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

In consideration of our supplying you with the above materials, you agree:

- To pay fees, when applicable.
- To use the materials for the purpose stated on this agreement.
- No print, transparency, digital file or part thereof provided to you under this agreement will be reproduced without prior written permission of the Aurora History Museum.
- Not to authorize others to use the items provided to you under this agreement without prior written permission from the Aurora History Museum.
