

MEDICARE, SOCIAL SECURITY and RELATED PROGRAMS

Please join our state and federal government agencies to learn more on these valuable programs in a multiple-part series. Attend all these classes or only a few-it's your choice! Classes offered at varying locations.

SOCIAL SECURITY 101: RETIREMENT, DISABILITY, SURVIVORS and DEPENDENT BENEFITS

This class covers the basics of Social Security, including retirement, disability, survivors' and dependent benefits. The class speaker is a representative from the Social Security Administration (SSA), a federal agency.

24375 Mar. 3

- Tue., 9-11 a.m.
- Beck

24376 Mar. 5

- Thu., 9-11 a.m.
- ACAA

- No fee
- Registration required

MEDICARE BEYOND BASICS: ELIGIBILITY and COVERAGE

This class covers the basics of Medicare, including the four parts of Medicare-parts A, B, C and D-eligibility, coverage choices and costs. Then move on to cover the different types of Medicare providers, the claims process, notices sent by Medicare, commonly used terminology (coinsurance, copays, deductibles), how to utilize the Medicare.gov website and much more. The class speaker is a representative from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), a federal agency within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

24377 Mar. 10

- Tue., 9-11 a.m.
- ACAA

POWER AGAINST FRAUD: FIGHTING BACK AGAINST I.D. THEFT

Identity theft affects 10 million Americans each year. The crooks are predators who know peoples' vulnerabilities and prey upon them. This class will provide attendees with a concrete understanding of Federal and state law to empower them to take the steps to put layers of insulation between themselves and crime. Be proactive; be safe! The class will be taught by, Barbara Martin-Worley, Director of Consumer Fraud Protection for the Arapahoe County District Attorney's Office.

24381 Mar. 24

- Tue., 9-11 a.m.
- Moorhead

MEDICARE CHOICES: SUPPLEMENTAL INSURANCE (MEDIGAP) and MEDICARE ADVANTAGE

This class covers your Medicare options; Medicare Supplement (Medigap) policies and Medicare Advantage (Medicare Part C) plans including what they are, how they work, who is eligible and how to enroll. The speaker will also discuss costs, how to compare plans and coverage options. The class speaker is a representative from the State Health Insurance Program.

24383 Mar. 31

- Tue., 9-11 a.m.
- ACAA

Medicare Part D: Prescription Drugs and the Plan Finder Tool-Comparing Coverage Options

This class provides information about Medicare prescription drug coverage (Medicare Part D), including eligibility, enrollment costs, coverage options and additional resources. This class will demo how to compare and evaluate their Medicare health and drug plan options using the Medicare Plan Finder Tool on www.Medicare.gov. The class speaker is a representative from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), a federal agency within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

24384 Apr. 14

- Tue., 9-11 a.m. • ACAA

HEALTH INSURANCE MARKETPLACE 101

This class covers information about the Health Insurance Marketplace, including eligibility, Advance Premium Tax Credits (APTC), Cost-Sharing Reductions (CSR) and Federal Poverty Limits (FPL). The speaker will address the Affordable Care Act (ACA), including what it is, how it works and how it was implemented in Colorado. Coloradoans will learn how to obtain access to affordable healthcare, how to avoid a penalty, what the important deadlines are and how to access free in-person assistance. The class speaker is a representative from Connect for Health Colorado.

24480 May 5

- Tue., 9-11 a.m.
- Expo

24481 May 7

- Thu., 9-11 a.m.
- ACAA

